

FIRST EDITION

Red Cloud on Gen. Grant.

He Accuses Him of Lying.

A Breach of Promise Case.

A Terrible Drowning Affair.

The Grafton Bank Robbery.

Story of a Western Vendetta.

Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.

RED CLOUD.

The King of the Plains Ashamed of His Great Father, the President—He Accuses Him of Lying.

The commission appointed by the President to visit the Sioux and Cheyenne Indians reached Fort Laramie, Washington Territory, on the 21st of September, where they were obliged to remain—awaiting the pleasure of his Royal Highness Red Cloud—until the evening of the 4th inst., when the head chiefs of those nations having arrived, measures were taken to have the Council meet.

RED CLOUD AND SPEECH.

Red Cloud, after offering a prayer in which all the Indian friends spoke as follows:—"You are my friends, and I want you to listen to my words. They are the same I told the Great Father, and I wish you to carry them back to him. I am glad to say that they listened to my words. I do not change. I hold my words. When I came back I promised to stay all my life. When I got back I talked to my young men, and I told them that they should listen to my words. My Great Father told me that it would be many years—ten, twenty, or thirty—before white men would pass through my country, and I told it to my young men. Before six months had passed, they went through my land, thus shaming me before my people. It was the Cheyenne party, Governor Campbell's kind of it, yet nobody stopped them."

RED CLOUD ACCUSES THE PRESIDENT OF LYING.

Mr. Brunet—The Great Father does not desire white men to pass by the way of Bridger, but wanted to pass through only traveling some thirty miles along the north side of the Platte, and then recrossing to this side. Red Cloud—I did not so understand it. The Great Father told me that Fort Fetterman was there to watch my interests as well as his. He had led to Washington, and it had ruined us, but we have received no pay for it. At all our other councils they never said anything about the road, but gave us all north of the Platte—the Great Spirit heard it. I had three or four pieces of land, which were given to me by the Great Father; but as I only have this piece I think he should let me live in peace on it. The Great Father has houses filled with gold stolen from my lands. I want him to do us justice.

BANK ROBBERIES.

Suicides Upon the Outrage at Grafton, Massachusetts.

The Boston Advertiser says:—"The bold and successful bank robbery at Grafton, Mass., has terminated in the suicide of those people who have the doubtful blessing of the possession of negotiable bonds, which must be offered as a temptation either to the burglar or the highwayman, or hidden away in some place where they will be discovered. Residents of country towns, who have considered that their one possible guaranty of security was in having a trustworthy man sleep in the bank beside their safe; but the Grafton burglars have shown that even this obstacle may be overcome without very serious difficulty. We are unable to advise the perplexed owners of bonds where to put their treasure where thieves do not break through—unless they adopt the almost obsolete scriptural method, and they launch out that one moral of this incident is to enforce more strongly the rule of the treasury, made, it seems, only to be generally disregarded, that national banks must not make their safes a place of deposit for valuables of their friends, even as an accommodation. The bank in this case, it is said, lost ten thousand dollars or so, against a loss by these irregular depositors of ten or fifteen times as much. But the bank would probably have lost nothing had not the burglar been so ready to tempt the thieves, and it has no right to impart the interests of its stockholders by thus obliging customers with a protection which too often proves to be no protection at all. It is probably useless to hope that the cool craftmen who have done this, will ever have a job in the highest line of their profession should be captured before they can get out of the State. But we sigh for that lucky day when just such a gang of rogues shall be caught and convicted of their crime, and then Massachusetts pluck shall treat them as the Bowdoinham robbers have been treated in Maine, rejecting all propositions of compromise, that justice may be done, and the Commonwealth earn the precious reputation of being an ineligible field for such speculations as the gentry carry on with security in almost all parts of the country."

A MISSOURI VENDETTA.

A Terrible Fued—Two Men Killed and the Other Yet Undecided.

The St. Louis Times of the 29th ult. says:—"We have just been furnished with the following particulars of a terrible feud in Clark county, which has already cost the lives of two of the participants:—"In the town of Luray, the latter part of last August, a man named Dobyas, during an altercation with a young man named Zimmerman, stabbed him with a knife in such a manner as to cause his death a few hours afterwards. Dobyas escaped and subsequently gave himself up to the authorities, and on examination was put under bonds to appear before the Circuit Court to answer to an indictment for murder in the first degree. Last Thursday morning, while Dobyas was talking to a friend on the town above mentioned, his brother, Zimmerman, walked up behind him and shot him in the back of the head, killing him instantly. Zimmerman was at once arrested and lodged in jail to await the action of the grand jury. He is a mere boy, only thirty-five years of age, and was, some suppose, incited to the desperate act by others, though it is rumored that Dobyas, after his murder of Zimmerman, had threatened the lives of the family. The affair naturally caused great excitement in Luray, owing to the extreme youth of the perpetrator, and the apprehension that the deadly feud may not end with the killing of Dobyas. —Miss Susan King, the agent of the New York Women's Tea Company, has arrived at Yokohama, Japan, and given a little tea company to the English correspondents. —S. F. McCleary, City Clerk of Boston, says in Old and New that, in ten years, of 6798 applicants placed on the voting list, only 369 could not read or write, and of these all but two were foreigners.

MAY AND DECEMBER.

A Kentucky Breach of Promise Case.

The Louisville Courier-Journal of October 27 says:—"Theresa Gahlhaus, a young girl about the age of 'sweet sixteen,' the daughter of an estimable widowed lady of this city, was wooed and won by Henry Hostetter (no relation to the bitter man), an old gentleman who has long since passed the meridian of life, but who possesses a reasonable amount of filthy lucre, together with other property, consisting of stocks, bonds, and other securities. This of itself was no uncommon occurrence, but with his sequel, it has formed a social sensation in the neighborhood which will furnish food for the gossip many days hence. It came about thusly: The old gentleman, whose wife died about three months ago, realized, from said experience, the force of the Scriptural adage, "It is not good for man to be alone," and looking about him with an eye to business, it fell upon an admiring gaze upon Theresa, who was employed as a domestic in the family of a gentleman on Eighteenth street, and who is said to be a very pretty girl. The old gentleman became acquainted with the girl through his relations with her brothers, who rent from him one or two farms which he owns in the country. His suit progressed very favorably, and he soon brought matters to a crisis by offering his hand and his real estate to his inamorata, who accepted them with the distinct understanding that they were to be, like the States of the Union, "one and inseparable." To this arrangement "Barkis was willin'," the preliminaries were settled, and the marriage ceremony was to take place at St. John's Church on the 11th inst. Every arrangement for the wedding had been completed, except, in the expected bride, the most important one, that

SECOND EDITION

WAR NEWS BY CABLE.

The Fall of Metz.

Details of the Surrender.

Was Bazaine a Traitor?

Massacre by Italian Brigands.

The San Francisco Lottery.

FROM NEW YORK.

Sudden Death of a Politician.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—While ex-Alderman Michael Connelly, of Jersey City, was standing before a bar in that city last night; he was taken with a sudden pain in the stomach, and becoming worse, a physician was sent for, who administered chloroform to relieve him. He became unconscious and remained so during the night and till 8 o'clock this morning, when he died. He was an independent candidate for Assembly from the Third district.

New York Money and Stock Market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Stocks very strong. Money 4 1/2 per cent. Gold, 11 1/2. 5-20s, 1860, coupon, 109, ex-interest; do. 1864, do. 107 1/2, ex-interest; do. 1865, do. 108 1/2, ex-interest; do. 1866, do. 109, 1867, 109 1/2, 1868, 109 1/2, 1869, 109 1/2; Virginia 6s, new, 65; Missouri 6s, 91 1/2; Canton, 65; Cumberland preferred, 80; N. Y. Central and Hudson R.R. 8 1/2; Erie, 10; Erie, 10; Adams Express, 47; Michigan Central, 20 1/2; Michigan Southern, 9 1/2; Illinois Central, 18 1/2; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 108; Chicago and Rock Island, 11 1/2; Pittsburg and Fort Wayne, 95 1/2; Western Union Telegraph, 40 1/2.

WHOLESALE BURGLARY.

How a Pair of Rogues Went Through a "Reformed Synod."

On Sunday night last the most general burglary which ever occurred in the city of New York was committed. The parties perpetrating the robbery are supposed to be two Germans, who, under very suspicious circumstances, were seen in town on Saturday and Sunday. Starting at the western end of Main street, they proceeded to Mr. Frederick Seidel's, where they obtained a coat and one pair of shoes; thence to the residence of Mr. James Graham, where they purloined one dress coat, one overcoat, and one dozen solid silver spoons; thence to the residence of Mr. John Eberly, where they secured a half dozen silver spoons and a butter-knife; thence to Mr. David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but were unsuccessful in getting into the house of David Deveney's, where they stole two black overcoats belonging to ministers of the synod; also the proceeds of the collection at the United Brethren Church; thence they proceeded to Mr. Hickenmiller's, where they made successful efforts, but